BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

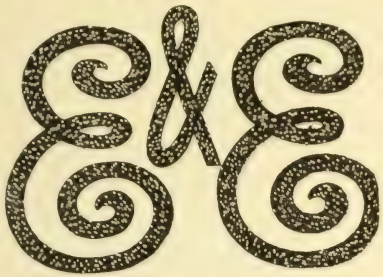

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

THE TWENTY-NINTH SEASON
NINETEEN HUNDRED FOURTEEN

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. And you will find too that no undue stringency of terms will stand in the way of your having a Chickering in your home tomorrow night.

THE HOUR GLASS

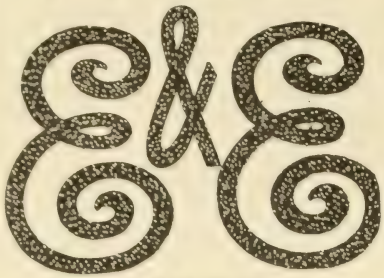

Poem by ALEXANDER GROVES

Music by H. T. BURLEIGH

The incidental use of a theme from the liturgy of the Dresden Church gives a special and characteristic tone to this composition. The song can be sung by all voices; can be used in any class of program, and offers opportunities for great effects.

BECAUSE they are unique in putting a great deal of good music where a great many people may hear it easily and in comfort, the Pops have become one of Boston's cherished institutions.

The Chickering Piano is an institution because its wonderful tone is unique in giving fitting expression to the musical motions of countless musicians. Our display-rooms here in Boston have put the Chickering's music where you may hear it easily and in comfort. THE HOUR GLASS

Poem by ALEXANDER GROVES

Music by H. T. BURLEIGH

The incidental use of a theme from the liturgy of the Dresden Church gives a special and characteristic tone to this composition. The song can be sung by all voices; can be used in any class of program, and offers opportunities for great effects.

THE HOUR GLASS

Poem by ALEXANDER GROVES

Vacation Islands!

Gently shelving beaches, where they can romp and play from day's end to day's end, splash in the warm shallows, build forts in the sand.

The sea air will give them hearty appetites—they will return to school sun-browned and healthy.

Vacation Islands!

Gently shelving beaches, where they can romp and play from day's end to day's end, splash in the warm shallows, build forts in the sand.

The sea air will give them hearty appetites—they will return to school sun-browned and healthy.

A Remarkable Song

THE HOUR GLASS

Poem by ALEXANDER GROVES

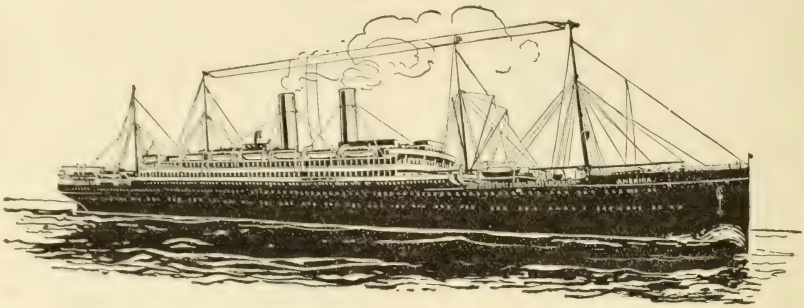

Music by H. T. BURLEIGH

The incidental use of a theme from the liturgy of the Dresden Church gives a special and characteristic tone to this composition. The song can be sung by all voices; can be used in any class of program, and offers opportunities for great effects.

A Remarkable Song

THE HOUR GLASS

Poem by ALEXANDER GROVES

Music by H. T. BURLEIGH

The incidental use of a theme from the liturgy of the Dresden Church gives a special and characteristic tone to this composition. The song can be sung by all voices; can be used in any class of program, and offers opportunities for great effects.

Think what it means to children to spend their summers amid the enchantments of these

Vacation Islands!

Gently shelving beaches, where they can romp and play from day's end to day's end, splash in the warm shallows, build forts in the sand.

The sea air will give them hearty appetites—they will return to school sun-browned and healthy.

We have two books picturing and describing these places. Write for the one you're interested in. Advertising Dept., Room 580, South Station, Boston.
